

THE ASIA-PACIFIC MUSIC CREATORS ALLIANCE

(Participation Statement)

The undersigned individual music creator and/or representative of creators' organizations of the Asia-Pacific region, agreeing to the Purpose mentioned below, hereby declares participation in the Asia-Pacific Music Creators Alliance (APMA).

Purpose:

The central purpose of APMA shall be to serve as an independent and non-conflicted advocate and educator on behalf of the music creator community of the Asia-Pacific area, seeking the protection, enforcement and expansion of the rights and interests of music creators of all musical genres.

In fulfilling such mandate, APMA may form further alliances with similarly non-conflicted music creator organizations in other territories around the globe in cooperation with the International Council of Music Authors (CIAM), the sole interests of which organizations must be to protect and advance the rights of the music creator community.
